TRINITY LABAN

English for Academic Purposes and additional Learning Support Tutor

Contract: Permanent, Part time (0.2 FTE)

Salary: £35,555- £42,013 p.a. pro rata (including LWA)

Working within student support, we are seeking a student-focused individual committed to supporting students to enhance their English for Academic Purposes, enabling to support our international community in achieving their full potential.

You will also work and liaise with academic and other staff to support students' academic and learning experiences. You will be an active partner in the student's learning and progression, contributing to the regular review of the support given to your students and attending and contributing to team meetings.

Educated to degree level, you will have previous experience of Higher Education and the needs of arts-based students and awareness of supporting a range of learning needs. You will be an excellent communicator with strong organisational skills.

As an equal opportunity employer, we positively encourage applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, religion or belief, marital status, or pregnancy and maternity.

Please note all applications submitted will be shortlisted anonymously by our recruiting panel, so please ensure that your name and personal details are not included to your supporting statement, otherwise we will not be able to consider your application.

Closing Date: 23:59 hours BST, Wednesday 1st July 2026 (No Agencies)

Interview Date: Friday 10th July 2026

Information on Trinity Laban

Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance is the UK's only conservatoire of music and contemporary dance. The unequalled expertise and experience of its staff, and its world-class facilities housed in landmark buildings, put Trinity Laban at the forefront of vocational training in music, musical theatre, and dance.

Our history goes back to 1872 with the founding of Trinity College of Music in London. Trinity College of Music merged with Laban (founded in 1946) in 2005 to create Trinity Laban, now home to a creative and cosmopolitan community of students, teachers and researchers from around the globe.

We have a reputation for innovation and forward-thinking and are focused on training students for life-long careers in our art forms. Each year we welcome over 1,000 students from over 60 countries to follow undergraduate, postgraduate and research programmes. Thousands more people enjoy music, dance and health activities as part of our lively performance and outreach programmes.

Our unrivalled roster of teaching staff includes respected academics, performers, composers and choreographers. Many of them are active researchers who push at the boundaries of their art forms and extend our understanding of artistic and educational practice. We also welcome leading visiting artists, ensembles and companies from around the world, so our students benefit from working directly with today's top performers.

*We work in a number of outstanding locations, including the 17th-century Old Royal Naval College at Greenwich (a World Heritage Site), the Stirling Prize-winning Laban Building in Deptford, and the magnificent Grade II listed Blackheath Halls. Our world-class facilities include state-of-the-art practice rooms and dance studios, flexible performance spaces and internationally famous libraries. Students also have access to the cultural wealth of London and regularly perform at its leading venues. To find out more, visit www.trinitylaban.ac.uk
